Rich Toward God
October 19 & 22, 2017

(Exodus 14:15) ... "Tell the people of Israel to go forward."

Making An Eternal Difference

(1 Timothy 6:17-19) Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

✓ Because Heaven is my forever home.

(Philippians 3:18-20) Many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ.

✓ Because there is limited time and incredible opportunity.

(Ephesians 5:15-16) Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.

✓ Because it's wise.

(Matthew 6:19-21 NLT) "Don't store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal. Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be."

✓ Because live's are at stake.

(James 5:19-20) My dear brothers and sisters, if someone among you wanders away from the truth and is brought back, you can be sure that whoever brings the sinner back from wandering will save that person from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins.

God has blessed me with more than I need so I can make an eternal difference in the lives of others.

Rich Toward God

(Luke 12:16-21) And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.' "Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?' "This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God."

1. I will give myself to God.

(1 Corinthians 6:19-20) You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.

2. I will live like a manager not an owner.

(Psalm 24:1) The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

3. I will view everything through the lenses of eternity.

(Hebrews 11:25-26) Moses chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

4. I will live intentionally.

(2 Corinthians 9:7 MSG) I want each of you to take plenty of time to think it over, and make up your own mind what you will give. That will protect you against sob stories and arm-twisting. God loves it when the giver delights in the giving.

I will never regret investing in eternity.
